PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the American way of life has its fountain in the American home; and

WHEREAS, the American home is the spirit of the nation and therefore is a significant sense, it is the nation; and

WHEREAS, the happiness, peace and helpful living of our people in the constantly changing order of society and the very life of our American Democracy depend upon the constant spiritual vitality of our homes; and

WHEREAS, the homes of our nation must be spiritually strong if our nation is to be strong; and

WHEREAS, it is indeed appropriate that South Dakota families worship together in giving thanks for their many blessings:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 21-28, 1954 as

AMERICAN HOME WEEK

AND, do also proclaim November 21, 1954, as

LET'S WORSHIP TOGETHER SUNDAY

in South Dakota and do hereby urge all South Dakotans to observe this week and day according to their own beliefs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 17th day of November, 1954.

. . . . . Sigurd Anderson. . . . .
Governor
